

The Angel Gabriel brought Mary a message of God's great love for the world. Who will you share this same message with this week? Colour in the Angel to make it as beautiful as you can.

Remember you can share the message of God's love by being kind and helpful. Cut out the angel and write on the back all the things you are going to try and do for others this week.